

REPUBLICANS PLAN TO MAKE DEFENSE

OF TAFT'S RENOMINATION IN BOTH THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE.

CONGRESS RUSH WORK

Abandonment of Democratic Filibuster Clears Decks for Speedy Work in Upper House.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, July 19.—Republican leaders of the senate and house are preparing to defend Pres. Taft's nomination with speeches on the floor. Sen. Root has been suggested as the man to make the leading speech in the senate. Whether he will do so has not been announced. Representatives Bartholomew and Mondell are preparing speeches for delivery in the house.

Senate Gets Busy.
The abandonment of the democratic filibuster in the senate following the agreement for a vote next week on the tariff bills, permitted business to start with a rush today at the opening of the session the sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up and an effort will be made to pass the bill with little debate.

Timman Stubborn.
Sen. Tillman's refusal to abandon a $500,000 improvement at the Charleston naval yard and a demand that all battleships be cut out of this year's building program probably will result in a disagreement over the naval appropriation bill. No decisive action has been taken as yet by conferees of the two houses. An effort is under way in the house whereby two battleships may be agreed to.

To Investigate.
An investigation of expenditures in the forest service by a special senate committee is asked in a resolution today by Senator Overman. The committee would sit during the recess of congress.

Claims Abuses.
The Overman resolution was referred to the committee on urgent ex-pense. "I was inspired by reports of abuse," he was informed, said the North Carolina senator, "that dupli-cates of payments have occurred; that more officials are employed than are needed; and that timber lands are being denuded more rapidly than before the service was established."

Unsettled Republican.
By a strict party vote the house elections committee number 2 today voted to unseat Rep. Theron E. Cat-tin, of St. Louis, republican, and to seat former Rep. Patrick Gill, democ-rat.

WAR NEWS CAUSED FLURRY IN GRAIN

Excited Trading on Chicago Market
Following News of Shutting Off of European Supply.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Chicago, July 19.—Excited trading in wheat and corn resulted here from the news of the sinking of Italian war vessels in the Dardanelles and the opening of the passage shut.

Shutting off grain from the Black Sea port of Russia and other coun-tries meant the stoppage of one of the chief sources of European supply, and coming wholly without warn-ing sent speculators here wild.

Wheat prices jumped as much as 2 1/2 cents and corn two cents. After the rush to buy was ended, however, fully half the advance was lost.

LIVING COST INCREASES; PAY MORE FOR CLOTHES.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
New York, July 19.—The price of clothes is going to be advanced next year. This increased tax on the al-ready high cost of living is clearly indicated, merchants say today, by the prices named by leading pro-ducers of cloth who have listed the prices for the spring of 1913 season, from 7 1/2 cents to 20 cents a yard above those which prevailed last year when the values for the past spring season were announced. Cloth prices are higher for the next spring season, agents say, because of condi-tions over which the manufacturers have no control.

ALLEGES CHEESE MARKET IS IN HANDS OF TRUST

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Madison, July 19.—The state board of public affairs will hold the regular meeting next Monday. Senator Henry Krumrey of Plymouth wants the board to investigate the marketing of cheese, claiming the state is in the grip of a cheese trust. Albert L. Williams of Buffalo, N. Y., will present ideas on a co-operative land company. Frederick A. Cleveland, head of Presi-dent Taft's efficiency bureau, and E. L. Sufferin of New York will make a report on the auditing conditions of the state and a new system of reports for state institutions.

THROWN FROM AUTOMOBILE UPON RAILWAY TRACKS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Apleton, July 19.—While driving an automobile alongside the interur-ban electric line between this city and Neenah last night, George Gil-ber, son of Theodore Gilbert, the Neenah paper manufacturer; John Studley, Miss Milson Babcock of Neenah and Miss Jessie Calvin of Chi-cago, were thrown onto the railroad tracks when the machine ran into a ditch and were badly injured. The girls were not seriously injured, but both Studley and Gilbert were very badly hurt although the extent of their injuries is not known.

ELECTOR DECLARES HE'S AGAINST TAFT

Otto J. Zander of the Sixth District Expresses Preference For Senator La Follette.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Fond du Lac, Wis., July 19.—In a letter addressed to William Maunthe, member of the republican state com-mittee from the Sixth dis-trict, Otto J. Zander of Brill, repub-lican elector from this district, states that he elected he will be unable to cast his vote for William H. Taft. He declares he must cast it for Robert M. La Follette or some other pro-gressive candidate upon whom the repub-licans might agree.

"If this determination on my part does not meet with the approval of your committee," Mr. Zander writes, "I shall be glad to submit my resig-nation at your request."

Mr. Zander gave as his reason for his attitude that President Taft "for the last four years has engaged in a vendetta against several states and that Wisconsin has been one of the worst sufferers."

"The republicans of our state," he declares, "are literally up in arms against Mr. Taft."

Mr. Maunthe, on whose recommenda-tion Mr. Zander was named as elector while declining to forecast the ac-tion of the state committee, declared that it is progressive to a man and that in his opinion Mr. Zander, in taking the course indicated, will be acting within his constitutional right.

Hicks Asks for Meeting.

After publication of the statement of Otto J. Zander, Sixth district re-publican candidate for presidential elector, that if elected he would not vote for Taft, Col. John Hicks, pub-lisher of the Oshkosh Northwestern and one of the republican presidential electors at large, gave out a state-ment endorsing Zander's position and stating that in his opinion all the thirteen republican electors from Wiscon-sin would cast their votes against President Taft. He added there was no thought of throwing the vote to Woodrow Wilson. He believes the electors should meet and decide on a plan of action.

"I think there is no question but that all the republican electors in Wisconsin will bolt Taft," said Mr. Hicks. "I know I shall not vote for him, and I believe the others feel the same way. The only question is as to whom we are to vote. It has been suggested that the thirteen votes be cast for Senator La Follette, but we have no knowledge as to whether that would be agreeable to him. What the electors should do is to meet and decide upon some plan of action. Mr. Zander's proposition to vote for La Follette or some other progressive republican meets with my approval. There would certainly be no thought of voting for Wilson."

Chairman Krumrey's Position.
Plymouth, Wis., July 19.—Concern-ing the Zander statement, Chairman Krumrey of the republican state cen-tral committee said:

"Unless Mr. Zander actually re-signs there will be no vacancy to fill. I don't see as there will be any-thing for the committee to do. Mr. Zander, in the event of his election, has a legal right to vote for whom he pleases. The state central com-mittee has nothing to meet for, and as I regard the matter at present I shall not call a meeting."

Another May Resign.
Madison, Wis., July 19.—It is under-stood here that C. C. Gittings, Racine, a republican presidential elector has decided to resign, as he has declared that he will not vote for President Taft if he is elected.

STATE'S ATTORNEY WOULD TELL STORY

Would Refute Testimony of Steffins in Darrow Case But For Requirements of Procedure.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Los Angeles, July 19.—But for the fact that it would preclude him from participating in the arguments to the jury District Attorney Fredericks would take the stand himself on re-buttal in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow and tell of his part in the negotiation which preceded the ab-rupt termination of the McNamara trial. That reason only would bar him from testifying, said Fredericks, if it should prove that the testimony of Lincoln Steffins' magazine writer, concerning the negotiations did not coincide with what he knew to be the facts in the matter. With the certainty of a searching cross-exami-nation before him, Mr. Steffins re-sumed the stand today for a continua-tion of his direct examination.

After a few questions relative to a meeting between himself and Clarence Darrow at which they were joined by Bert H. Franklin, Lincoln Steffins was turned over to the pro-se-cution for cross examination at the semi-annual meeting of the upper Des Moines Corn Belt Editorial as-sociation. The endorsement followed an address by Miss Mary Safford, president of the Iowa Equal Suffrage society.

REBELS MASSACRED BY YAQUI INDIANS?

Railway Passengers Bring Report to Juarez of Bloody Fight in Which Rebels Lose
300 Men.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Juarez, July 19.—Passengers arriv-ing over the Mexican Northwestern from Madero today brought stories of a bloody massacre of rebels in Do-lores mountain pass southwest of Madera at the entrance to the state of Sonora. They declared that the vanguard of the column commanded by Gen. Antonio Rojas was caught in a canyon at Dolores by nearly 1,000 Yaqui Indians and that 500 rebels less than 200 returned to Madera in safety. That a force of government volunteers was appearing behind Do-lores to prevent an entrance of the rebels from Sonora was generally known here but it was not believed any Yaqui Indians were enlisted in the cause of the government except the 600 fighting for Gen. Sanguines at Colonia Oaxaca in northern Sonora. Federal officials in El Paso preferred to wait for more definite advices before commenting on the report.

Ordered Back.
Washington, July 19.—All troops dispatched to El Paso when the Mexi-can rebels were moving on Juarez soon will be removed with the ex-ception of a regiment of cavalry. A battalion of infantry, a battalion of field artillery and a regiment of cav-alty are now there.

LABOR FEDERATION ATTACKS PARTIES

State Federation Denounced Both Republican and Democratic Parties in Meeting Today.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Sheboygan, July 19.—Denouncing the Republican party for having re-fused to listen to the entreaties of the American Federation of Labor for the inclusion of labor planks in the republican platform in Chicago and attacking the democratic party for having failed to make good in the promises of labor legislation in con-gress made at Denver a year ago, the Wisconsin Federation of Labor today called upon the members of organized labor to cast their bal-lots in the coming election for the real representatives of labor. Reso-lutions denouncing the capitalistic system and evils were adopted.

Schwencke's wife and children visited in Germany and the mother died there and Schwencke now wants to secure the children, but he is told by government authorities that he would probably have trouble if he made the trip to Germany and not being a citizen here Uncle Sam cannot help him. Schwencke will make an effort to secure papers so he can go to Germany until he can get his chil-dren, but failing in this will be forced to wait until his children are old enough to travel alone.

SUFFRAGETTES ARE TAKEN IN CUSTODY BY IRISH POLICEMEN

Eight English Women Charged With Various Outrages in Dublin
Last Night.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Dublin, Ire., July 19.—Eight Eng-lish women have been taken into cus-tody by the police in connection with the outrages perpetrated here last night on the arrival of Mr. Asquith by suffragettes who constantly have been dogging the heels of the British premier since he left England.

The women are charged with com-licity in the attempt to burn down the Dublin theatre where Mr. Asquith is scheduled to speak today. A blazing chair was thrown into the orches-tra from a box occupied by two women, who then set fire to the box curtains.

Their act caused a panic among the audience. One of the women was ar-rested last night. She gave the name of Gladys Evans and said she came from England.

The eight suffragettes also are charged with complicity in the at-tempt to injure Mr. Asquith by throw-ing a hatchet at the premier's car-riage as the party was proceeding from the wharf to a hotel.

Mrs. Mary Leigh, one of the suffra-gettes under arrest, was identified to-day as the thrower of the hatchet. The woman is alleged by the police to intend to brain Mr. Asquith.

Mrs. Leigh has long been a leader in the violent tactics adopted by the militant suffragettes. As far back as July, 1908, she was arrested for break-ing windows in a suffragette demon-stration in London.

At that time on being sentenced to two months in prison at hard labor, Mrs. Leigh told the court, "The next time we come out you can expect bombs."

A year later Mrs. Leigh again was sentenced to two months at hard la-bor in Brixton, and on being re-leased brought damages against the government for forcible feeding while in prison.

The woman is described by the po-lice as "the most troublesome suffra-gette" they have had to deal with.

Mrs. Leigh was convicted for the eighth time in London last November for smashing windows and was sen-tenced to two months in jail without the option of a fine.

The magistrate warned Mrs. Leigh that if she again were convicted she would be sent to jail to serve a term at hard labor.

The police found quantities of gun powder, kerosene and other inflammable materials in the rooms occupied by the arrested suffragettes. The offi-cials claim to have evidence showing that the plans of the militant women contemplated serious outrages.

SENATE OPPOSITION TO TWO PROMOTIONS

Two Appointments, One Brigadier General and Another Major General, May Not Be Confirmed.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, July 19.—Opposition has developed in the senate to the confirmation of Clarence R. Edwards as brigadier general, and W. W. Waterspoon as major general in the army. It is understood that in the case of General Edwards, who until recently was chief of the bureau of insular affairs, many senators believe he has had too little experience in the line of the army, while in the case of General Waterspoon objection is that his advancement to a major gen-eralship would carry him over the heads of several other officers.

MANITOWOC STIRRED BY CHURCH SCANDAL

Wife of Presbyterian Pastor Leaves Home Alleging That Her Husband Assaulted Her.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Manitowoc, July 19.—Denying there has been a reconciliation and declar-ing that she could not see Mrs. Shep-pley, wife of Rev. E. H. Sheppley, pas-tor of the Presbyterian church, whose charges that her husband had as-saulted her forced his resignation from the church, has packed her per-sonal effects and left the city today for her former home in Illinois, ac-companied by her father, George Dun-eth, who was called here by her. The charges have created the biggest kind of a sensation and church offi-cials declare have caused irreparable injury to the church.

Rev. Sheppley has attained promi-nence here and in the state by his campaign for reforms and his attacks upon socialism and the local socialist administration. It is said Sheppley will go on the lecture platform.

Rev. Sheppley in her charges al-leged her husband had struck her and chased her from their home to seek refuge in the home of neighbors and he had followed her there with threats.

ATROCITIES IN PERU CAUSE FOR INQUIRY

British Government May Insist That United States Should Take Initial Steps.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, July 19.—The atrocities committed in the Putumayo rubber district of Peru which universally have been characterized here as sur-passing in horror anything charged to the rubber collectors of the Congo apparently will be kept in the lime light until something is done to punish the perpetrators and to bring about the assurance that there will be no repetition of the outrages.

A sheet of questions was launched at the British foreign office in the house of commons this afternoon and when the reply was given it was ap-parent the foreign office expects to take a subordinate place to the state department at Washington in bring-ing Peru to book.

"It is clear I think," said Francis D. Acland, parliamentary secretary for foreign affairs, "that the United States has a better opportunity of better things done than any other government interests."

Mr. Acland also referred to the questions raised by the United States government as to whether Peru is a suitable state to have control of a district like the Putumayo or whether that government should not be for-cibly dispossessed of it; and he prom-ised that "his majesty's government will do anything it possibly can to help any action the United States may take."

CHARGE OF ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD COUNTY

Hearing for Sheriff at Marinette Today on Ground That He Tried to Beat County Out of $21.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Marinette, Wis., July 19.—The charge that Sheriff A. E. Schwittay attempted to defraud the county of the sum of $21 by representing that two prisoners were taken to Waupun on separate trips when in fact they were taken in one trip is being heard to-day before Commissioner Messerschmidt, as one of the charges on which Schwittay's removal from office is asked by the governor.

His defense made was that the prisoners were taken to Waupun by under-sheriff Oscar Johnson and when the exchange was called to his attention he said he did not know much about the matter because the trip had been taken by another offi-cer. Commissioner Messerschmidt sustained the demurrer on charge number one, on Schwittay's conten-tion that it did not allege misconduct since Schwittay has been in the sheriff's office.

DEATH OF GAMBLER IS BROUGHT CLOSER TO POLICE SYSTEM

Detectives Are Obtaining Clues Which Verify Suspicions As Regards Murder of Rosenthal.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, July 19.—The murder plot that brought Hermann Rosenthal to his death that the gambler might not tell tales, is today being brought closer to the "police system." Wil-liam Shapiro, part owner of the "mur-der car," has given the public prose-cutor information that strengthened the belief that the slayer of Rosenthal did not spring from the enmity of a gamblers' clique.

Shapiro admits that when his mo-tor car was engaged he was told that policemen had knowledge of what was going to happen and that nobody was in any danger. "Balk Jack" Rose, gambler and a friend of Police Lieut. tenant Becker, and who surrendered himself to the police, has given the name of a gambler and a gun-fighter who was in the car the night that Rosenthal was shot down in front of the Hotel Metropole. His name is Shaps and detectives are scouring the town for him.

What Rose told Deputy Commis-sioner Dougherty makes the police offi-cials quite anxious to know more about "Bridgey" Weber, pool-room keeper and friend of Rosenthal.

Kester of Minocqua was yesterday bound over to trial in the circuit court by Municipal Judge Walker on the charge of murder in the first degree, being accused of having murdered the adopted son of his wife on the night of July 7. The neighbors claimed and testified that Kester had abused the boy and it was shown the boy had run away from home and complained to neighbors on four occasions.

MAKE QUICK CAPTURE MOTORCYCLE THIEF

Clarence Bowman, Youth Nineteen Years Old, Who Stole Machine At Madison, Caught Here.

A pause for repairs proved to be the undoing of Clarence Bowman, a nineteen year old youth who stole a motorcycle and other belongings from a farmer near Madison, and was making his escape to his old home in Chicago. Bowman was arrested here shortly before five o'clock yesterday and held to await the arrival of under Sheriff Burmeister of Dane County who took him to Madison last night where he will be held for trial.

The theft was discovered soon after it had taken place and the police in several cities were notified by the officers. The police in this city were given a description of Bowman by telephone between two and three o'clock, and this was placed in the hands of Mr. Beecher of the Beecher Cycle company. Not more than an hour later a strange rider came up and asked to have repairs made. He was nervous and seemed to be in a hurry to get away. Mr. Beecher noticed that the machine was an Indian with some of the paint scraped off on the tank and tool box, in so far as corresponding with the description of the stolen machine. While the boy was not looking he also examined the engine number and noticed that it corresponded. This assured him that this was the machine and the rider the thief, and with a covert word to one of his men, the latter summoned Officer Peter Champion who placed him under arrest.

Bowman at first stoutly denied stealing the wheel, declaring that he was on his way to Chicago from South Dakota. Later he admitted coming from Madison but said he was only taking the wheel away for three or four days and would return it. He had strapped on the motorcycle a suit case in which were a baseball mitt, a National ball, a mask, a gold watch and an Ingersoll watch, a dog-skin cap, a suit of clothes and other articles, all of which were declared by the undersheriff to have been stolen, including the suit he wore and $23.55 in cash. Bowman had been working two months for the farmer from whom he stole the machine.

THE BEST TEACHER

Experience Still Holds the Palm

For real practical reliability and something to swear by, experience—plain old experience—is able to carry a big load yet without getting swayed.

A So. Dak. woman found some things about food from Old Experience—a good, reliable teacher.

"She writes:

"I think I have used almost every breakfast food manufactured, but none equal Grape-Nuts in my estimation.

"I was greatly bothered with weak stomach and indigestion, with formation of gas after eating, and tried many remedies for it but did not find relief.

"Then I decided I must diet and see if I could overcome the difficulty that way. My choice of food was Grape-Nuts because the doctor told me I could not digest starchy food.

"It has been a great benefit to me for I feel like a different person since I began to use it. It is wonderful to me, how strong my nerves have become. I advise everyone to try it, for experience is the best teacher.

"If you have any stomach trouble—can't digest your food, use Grape-Nuts food for breakfast at least, and you won't be able to praise it enough when you see how different you feel."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Well-being," in pkgs.

Timely Aid

When one's digestion is "out of fix" a good straightforward test of food is worth much.

Many who have suffered from stomach trouble have discovered that a dish of

Grape-Nuts

and cream

is not only easily digested, but actually assists in the digestion of other food.

The power of proper food—the kind the stomach will digest, and at the same time yields nourishment—is almost unlimited.

Port Shot by Doc McCarty

"I'll sign a million sandlot tickets to take on the southern training trip with the Tigers next spring," says President Navin of the Detroit club, who is tired of looking for good material in the minor leagues. "All the sandlot tickets will have to show to get a chance is a little natural ability. Out of the scores of amateurs I expect to sign we may get one or two good players, and it will be satisfactory if we get two."

"Did you ever notice how many great stars just jump in and play major league ball? I'll name you a few: Cobb, Mullin, Jackson, Lajoie, Wagner, Evers and Mathewson. Quite a collection."

Manager Griffith, of the Washington Senators, says quick-moving players are more valuable than quick thinkers.

"They've got to hit 'em out and then get around the bases," says Griffith. "The day of the slow-moving player is past. When I say quick-steppers, I mean it on quick-thinkers don't take it that I fail to appreciate the value of the boys with chain lightning minds."

Tom Jones, Ad Volgas's manager, says that the lightweight champion won't fight for three months. Volgas is left with two broken bones in his left hand.

Ring experts consigned Billy Papke, the middleweight, to the junk heap not long ago, but the versatile mauler from the Sucker state may decide to stay there. He and George Carpenter, the Frenchman, will meet in a twenty-round battle at Paris, France the latter part of this summer, and Eddie McGoorty, Jack Dillon, Bob Moha, Leo Houck and Buck Crouse will watch the outcome from the side lines with interest. The winner of the Papke-Carpenter fight will meet Frank Klaus in Paris.

Tommy Burns really intends to get into the fight game again. Visions of $20,000 purses being offered for ten-round bouts in New York state have doubtless moved him to this conclusion. Tommy has been training quietly but hard for sometime, and now he insists that Jack Johnson give him a fight.

"I will fight Johnson ten rounds clean break, no hitting in the clinches, and he can cut the money any way he pleases," says Burns. "I can beat him on those terms and I know it."

In the meantime, Burns will meet Bill Rickard, a white hope from Vancouver, B. C., in a fifteen-round bout at Saskatoon, Sask., on August 8.

Owing to Pennsylvania's lack of commission, boxing conditions in the state are not ideal and many complaints are heard. The most kicking comes from the fighters, who claim they are not fairly dealt with by the managers of clubs. Often they are promised bouts, and after training for them their engagements are called off and substitutes put in their place, with neither an explanation or remuneration being given. This brings many pangs to the fighters, who talk of forming a union to protect their interests.

OFFERS SUGGESTION.

With the announcement that the Interstate Commerce Commission had made sweeping changes in the rates for the various express companies throughout the country the general public waits with bated breath to see what the express companies are going to do about it. It has always been believed that Wall Street controlled all of the big express companies, but we find the Wall Street Journal giving the following advice to the companies, which is worth consideration by all who are studying the financial situation this disturbed presidential year:

"If the express companies know a good thing when they see it, they will accept the plan of the Interstate Commerce Commission, with just the modifications necessary to make it workable. They will do this lest a worse thing befall them. When they have done it they will be surprised to find that, on account of the expansion of their business, they are making more money than before; while they will save those heavy expenditures in Washington euphemistically called 'legal expenses.'

"Admitting that the express companies have made large profits in the past, they are nevertheless badly managed, inefficient, extortionate, dilatory, and, unless their reputation beles them, corrupt. They put themselves in the wrong at the start by declining to furnish that publicity which the public, under whose permission they exist, is entitled to demand. And they foolishly antagonize the small shipper, who has it in his power to vote the government into the express business, by parcels post or otherwise, without expropriation at any price.

"It would almost seem as if the idea were to take everything that could be extracted from the small shipper by delay, carelessness, double collections, and extortionate rates, on the bucket shop theory of 'skinning' the customer because he will not afford a second chance. The machinery of the express companies, granting the substitution of auto trucks for the obsolete horse equipment, is sufficient to handle many times their present trade. This especially refers to their plant in connection with the railways. And yet the policy of the management indicates the brains of a New York cabman, who would sooner carry one disgusted and indignant fare for two dollars, with half a day of idleness, than ten fares at fifty cents.

"In England, the London Parcel Delivery Co., Carter, Patterson & Co., Limited, and other express companies do business and earn handsome dividends on their stock, not only in competition with a parcels post which is twenty years ahead of our post office, but with the railroads themselves, who handle directly the sort of freight which goes through the express companies here. This is because they are enterprising, intelligent, obliging, economically handled, and quick to seize the opportunity to get business. They compete actively for the small shipper's trade, and he reciprocates with his confidence and support.

"There are other corporations in this country to whom the lesson may be commended. It is the difference between efficiency and debilitating protection and privilege."

AN OFFSET FOR ALL FRUIT LOSSES.

The peach crop may be as short as current reports say that it will prove; the cherry yield may fall far below the usual level in some important sections; California may have fewer apricots than the normal supply, but all of these deficiencies will be more than offset if nothing happens to blight the promise of the apple trees. The biggest fruit crop is expected to prove the best in many years. It will be of extraordinary bulk and probably of unusual quality, all the way from Maine to Washington, with the exception of certain localities where apples are not extensively grown. The finest outlook for the apple orchards is in the states where apples are produced on the largest scale.

The same experts who predicted a total yield of about 29,000,000 barrels last year and proved to be about 1,000,000 barrels below the mark, say now that the crop of 1912 will reach 50,000,000 barrels. That means an increase of 20,000,000 barrels or more, which is equal to a gain of 67 per cent. Put another way, it promises for this year about fifteen billion more individual apples than were grown in the United States in 1911.

Such figures make the lesser fruit crops seem small. The increase in the yield of apples will far more than balance the decrease in all of the other fruits which may fall short of last year's record. This will be true both in quantity and value. Even the orange crop is completely dwarfed by the apples when the orchards are doing well, and the apple crop can be reckoned in barrels against some of the smaller fruits in pounds and still come out ahead.

ENGLAND'S VERDICT IN THE TITANIC DISASTER.

The preliminary report issued by Lord Mersey on the result of the British board of trade's investigation of the Titanic catastrophe fully meets the expectations of the public, on this side of the Atlantic at least. British pride and British assurance that nothing which is British can be wrong are too strong to be overcome even by the most appalling marine disaster of all time.

The report is a striking example of what, to put it mildly, is commonly known as the "judicial temperament." As the London press says, it is "severely unemotional" and shows the ability of the investigators to "detach themselves from the human side of a calamity that harrowed the world." Another English commentator on the report cites the board's exonerations of J. Bruce Ismay to show that in such cases "the vulgar are likely to err." In other words, the British board of trade have applied a liberal coat of "whitewash" to nearly everybody and everything British concerned in the sinking of the Titanic and the loss of nearly all its passengers and crew.

But the world has formed a verdict for itself. It remembers the obstinacy with which England clung to old military traditions in the Boer war and how dear a price it had to pay for so doing. It cannot close its eyes to the fact that the loss of life on the Titanic was partly due to antiquated regulations still relied upon by the British board of trade that made the investigation. And the world prefers to accept the conclusions drawn from the immediate and unsparring, even if hasty, search into the causes of the disaster made by a committee of the United States senate.

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.

The Philadelphia Ledger sums up the situation in the following language. "The third party men have no right whatever upon the republican ticket or in the republican party. Every elector on the republican ticket is in honor bound to vote for Taft or to get off the republican ticket. Mr. Roosevelt has abjured the republican party and is making his appeal to democrats."

There is a movement on foot for one general civic holiday, a big picnic, as it were, of all the local stores and perhaps the industries of the city. A Janesville Day it is to be called. Sort of a Fourth of July, of the same variety, and all the other holidays rolled up into one. The promoters are reticent about discussing definite plans but it is said it is taking shape and may be accomplished.

Up at the city hall is an exhibit brought here by the Commercial club which deserves investigation of all manufacturers and employers of labor to illustrate how they can best safeguard their workers from injury. It is well worth visiting and looking into thoroughly.

Hayti is about to be invaded by Simon, its former president. Here's another chance for some of the Mexican generals whose bears are still palpitating ineffectually for liberty.

Condemns are in order for Colonel George Harvey. Despite the fact that he is the original Woodrow Wilson man, it is not permitted him to omit a single whoop.

Woodrow Wilson said that he felt "very, very solemn" when he was notified of his nomination. But that's nothing to the expression observed on Champ Clark's face.

After that week and a half in Baltimore it is evident that Washington's summer climate has no further terrors for the democratic senators and congressmen.

A Philadelphia man says the Liberty bell is a fake. And evidently

Bought on a Liquid Farm.

A certain Michigan man recently invested in a Florida farm, purchased through an agent by mail. Recently he wrote to the recorder of the Florida county for a description of it. He received the following reply: "Have investigated your property site. If you will look at a map of the United States and trace with a pencil where it is written 'Gulf of Mexico,' you will find that your lot is located exactly under the letter 'o' in the word 'Mexico.'"

You're good or bad;

You're gay or sad.

the bell isn't the only thing in Philadelphia that is cracked.

Republican electors who announce they can not vote for William Howard Taft, the republican nominee for president, should resign at once and permit the regular republican organization to fill their places with regular republicans.

The defeated candidates should cheer up. A man is never down and out until he refuses to throw out his chest every time he passed a looking glass.

Autumn styles for men decree a waist line. But in some cases a surveying expert will have to be employed to find it.

It might help some, these days, to go down in the basement and foundle the snow shovel.

New York is booming itself as a summer resort. Next, Baltimore will be trying it.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE

LIVING 150 YEARS.

"There is no good reason," says a recent writer, "why a man should not live to be 150 years old."

Bag pardon! There are many reasons. Much is being said nowadays about longevity and the art of living, and many exaggerated statements are made. Of that sort is the statement quoted.

There are reasons why one, even though he should be able to keep soul and body together for 150 years, should not desire to do so. The reasons are inside the man—in the web and wool of his spirit.

Seldom does the man who reaches the age of ninety years have any great desire to live longer. He would be appalled at a future stretching out sixty years beyond.

Why? He is built that way. In spite of the primal desire to live, he would grow tired of mortal life. Having suffered "the stings and arrows of outrageous fortune," he is weary—in the very knot and center of his being—wary as a little child at bedtime.

The aged man must necessarily be a lonely man. Outliving his generation, he is out of touch with the world. His dear ones have gone before—playmates of his youth, friends of early manhood and middle life—all gone.

In the very nature of things he cannot make new friends like the old ones. Youth must consort with youth. Lacking the stimulus of normal associations and friendships, his spirit droops within him. It must be so.

Moreover, the aged man must necessarily have lost the fine flush of enthusiasm and the fine edge of endeavor which go with youth and early manhood. His spirit is dulled.

The aged man is disillusioned. Once he could build his beautiful castles in Spain. They have toppled at his feet. Once the mirages of life allured him on. He has seen them rise, dissolve into nothingness.

Tired, lonely, disillusioned—that is why men die when they die of "old age." Like certain trees they begin their decay at the top.

It is well that mortals should live as long as they can live—usefully and happily. But—

Better, infinitely better, than a mere stretch of years is the life that worthily spends its Scriptural span and then, when the shadows lengthen, lies down to pleasant dreams.

Would you deliberately throw money away? That's what you'll do if you don't buy several pairs of oxfords here tomorrow. Any man's or woman's oxford in the house $1.98 a pair. See advertisement on page 14. Brown Bros. On the Bridge.

POLICE COM. WALDO BLAMES THE COURTS

Police Commissioner Waldo.

Police Commissioner Waldo of New York blames the courts for the lawlessness which exists among the gamblers of the metropolis. He declares that the punishment inflicted upon law breaking gamblers is not adequate, and favors a stricter enforcement of the laws against them.

Figuring on the Loot.

A Pennsylvania burglar was sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment for stealing 20 bushels of wheat. Nowdays burglars will do well to read the market reports, leave the cereals alone and confine their attention to silverware, jewelry and other less costly commodities.

Pain and Grief Common to All.

It is not surprising that "accidents are always happening." Even kings and queens cannot live through calm and peaceful days. Toothache attacks their royal nibblers and gout brings pain to honored toes. Disappointment, suffering, loss of money, anxiety are merely bitter ingredients in the formula of daily existence.

Origin of Names of Dances.

At Madison Shoot: Harry McNamara, Dr. Jas. Gibson, Wm. McVicar, Louis Nickerson, Charles Snyder, John Heimer, E. P. Drake and W. E. Lawyer were in Madison yesterday to attend a shoot of the Madison Gun club. The local men made a good showing but their exact standing was not known owing to the fact that they left the tournament after they had completed their turns in order to catch their train.

Where it Falls.
Education is one of the best things in the world, but loses its effectiveness when it comes into contact with prejudice.

Emotion and Conduct.
Emotion has no value in the Christian system save as it is connected with right conduct. It is the bud, not the flower, and is of no value until it expands into the flower. Every religious sentiment, every act of devotion which does not produce a corresponding elevation of life, is worse than useless; it is absolutely pernicious, because it ministers to self-deception, and tends to lower the tone of personal morals.—Murray.

Italy's Main Imports.
Italy's principal imports are cereals, raw cotton, coal, machinery, lumber, raw silk, hides, horses, wool and hair, iron, mineral oil, seeds, coffee, colors and varnishes, copper, jute, mother of pearl, nitrate of soda, paraffin, phosphates, grease, precious stones, wood pulp, tobacco, railway cars, tin, sulphate of copper and sulphate of ammonia.

SUFFRAGISTS PLACE HEROIC STATUE OF "LIBERTY" ON FRONT OF HEADQUARTERS

Suffragists' Statue of "Liberty."
The Political Equality Association, of New York, of which Mrs. O. H. P. Bulmont is president, has established a most attractive headquarters. An heroic statue representing "Liberty" occupies a conspicuous place over the entrance.

ELEVEN COMPANIES HAVE NOT REPORTED

Rock County Corporations That Failed to File Reports According to State Law.

Eleven Rock county corporations have failed to file their annual reports with the state industrial commission in accordance with the chapter 562, laws of 1907. These companies will forfeit their right to do business under the laws of this state unless they file their reports before Jan. 1, 1913, and pay the forfeit fee as required by the law. The companies in the list which is posted in the office of the registrar of deeds are as follows: Beloit-Elmo Mining company, Beloit; Beloit Leasing company, Beloit; Evansville Produce company, Evansville; P. Hohenadel, Jr. company, Janesville; Jefferson Mining company, Janesville; Janesville Fraternity Building Association, Janesville; The Little Dick Mining company, Milton; Murdock Land company, Janesville; Pen Filling Machine company, Janesville; Sommers Mining company, Evansville; and the Southern Railway and Navigation company, Janesville.

SAYS COMPETITION EXISTS IN BUTTER AND EGG TRADE.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Chicago, July 19.—G. T. F. Gallagher, a member of the quotation committee of the Chicago butter and egg board told Master in Chancery Morrison today there was much competition between butter and egg dealers. His testimony was in the injunction suit brought to restrain the board from creating "fictitious values" on the produce and from controlling prices of butter and eggs.

If you are out of work get a job through the want ad columns.

Russian Wealth Unevenly Divided.
Income tax statistics for the czar's subjects show that of the empire's total population of 16,000,000 only about four hundred thousand have income running from $515 to $1,030 a year. On the other hand, 3,300 subjects have an aggregate of yearly incomes amounting to about $277,000,000, very nearly as much as the 400,000 who have $285,000,000.

TILLMAN'S "TERROR" WOULD BE COSTLY

Ben R. Tillman.

Senator Ben R. Tillman's resolution, providing that the senate committee on naval affairs be instructed to ascertain and report just how large and effective a fighting machine can be constructed, having passed the upper house, said committee is now very busy looking the matter up. They are finding, it is said, that the ship Tillman has in mind would be of about 60,000 tons displacement. The expense has not been carefully calculated, but would be pretty well up into the millions.

Work of Youthful Writers.

A western paper recently offered a prize for the best story to be written by a pupil of the public school. Here are a few passages from the contributions: "Cora Brown was fortunately the possessor of a birthday, for she was the daughter of rich friends." "But all this time a cloud was gathering over Mrs. Delaney, which grew large as years went by, and that cloud was full of grasshoppers." "My father desired me to marry a bank president, a handsome, reckless man, fond of naught save the gambling table." "Vat I dell you, vat I dell you," shouted the Irishman. "As she entered the room a cold, damp smell met her sight."

Tell Time by the Sun.

Few clocks are to be found in Liberia. The reckoning of time is made entirely by the movement and position of the sun, which rises at 6 a. m. and sets at 6 p. m., almost to the very minute, all the year round. At noon it is vertically overhead.

Unique Decoration.

W. T. Stead, who went down with the Titanic, did not disapprove of the wearing of decorations, but he considered the insignia now in use strangely inadequate. He resolved to create new insignia to replace those he deemed to be insufficient. He chose a trousers button. This decoration he conferred on those he deemed worthy. One day he had with Nicholas II. a conversation on peace. The ideas of the emperor of Russia pleased him greatly and at the close of the interview Mr. Stead took one of his buttons from his pocket and hooked it upon the breast of the czar.

Both Worlds.

The grand difficulty is to feel the reality of both worlds, so as to give each its due place in our thoughts and feelings, to keep our mind's eye and our heart's eye fixed on the land of promise, without looking away from the road we are to travel toward it.—Augustus Hare.

Astonished the Conductor.

Rev. Dr. George W. Field of Bangor is a very absent-minded man. When on the street, in the cars, or even at dinner, his mind is often so fully concentrated upon the subject of his next sermon that he appears to take no notice of surrounding circumstances. At one time, traveling between Bangor and Boston as the conductor of the train, passing through the car making collections of tickets, came to Dr. Field with hand outstretched; the reverend gentleman, glancing up quickly from a reverie, looked into his face a moment, then extended his hand and said, "Good afternoon, sir; but I think you have a little advantage of me. What name?"

Single Blessing.

Pearl—"They say blessings never come singly." Ruby—"Yes, but blessings come single sometimes." Pearl—"Single? What do you mean?" Ruby—"Why, Belle captured an old bachelor worth a cool million. He was a single blessing, wasn't he?"

DANCER WHO GOT KISS FROM BELGIAN MONARCH VISITS THE UNITED STATES

Mile. L'Aerolia.

L'Aerolia, the beautiful cause of a recent upheaval in the court of Belgium and one of the most popular European dancers, has arrived in New York, and on the evening of July 17, commenced filling an engagement at the Winter Garden. She is making a great hit.

L'Aerolia is the girl expelled from Belgium by Queen Elizabeth and the royal cabinet for the reason that she unconsciously fascinated King Albert and was kissed by him. The Gaby Deslys affair is still fresh in the minds of European statesmen and the queen and diplomats of Belgium insisted that the only thing to do with the little dancer was to get her just as far out of the way as possible. Not on any account should it become possible for the history of Portugal to be repeated in Belgium, with another young sovereign and another charming danseuse as the two principal characters in the story.

Moham- medanism

By Edward A. Marshall,
Director of Missionary Course of Moody Bible
Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.—Matt.
7:15.

The study of comparative religions is becoming more and more popular.
It is an excellent thing for Christian people to weigh the religions of the world
and for the non-Christians to realize the power of Christianity. One
of the systems
that is being studied is Mohammed-
danism, and it is held by some to be a stepping stone to Christianity.

In examining the various systems of religion,
great care must be exercised in searching for the points of contact less we strive to make them points for the amalgamation of Christianity with the non-Christian system. Mohammed is considered the last of the great prophets who inaugurated these great religious systems. He was born in Mecca about 500 years after Christ.
At the age of twenty-five he married a wealthy widow for whom he had carried on business, by caravan, between Mecca and Damascus. Later he began to have religious aspirations and on various occasions while in seclusion in a cave experienced strange hallucinations that he attributed to the influence of angels. He considered himself constituted a prophet by Gabriel and took up the work of reformation. He became bitter against idolatry and opposed some of the inconsistencies of his time. However, as years went on, he became grasping,
which caused him to break his own laws and do inconsistent things. To justify himself in this, he claimed he had received revelations granting him special permission to do them. He soon took up the sword and became a leader of a band of brigands. After his death, Abu Bekr took up the work and began the conquest of Palestine and Syria. It was carried on by his successors until Asia Minor and North Africa, were conquered. They then attempted to get into Europe through Constantinople on the east and Gaul on the west. They were driven back, which delivered Europe from the yoke of Mohammedanism. The conquest
then went to the east toward India, and southward into the Sudan in Africa.

Mohammedanism is a mixture of Paganism and Judaism. It is strongly Montheistic; teaches absolute predestination and that only Moslems are saved. Its spirit is "rule or ruin," peaceably if there is no opposition, but with the iron heel, if necessary. Mohammed got his idea of God from Judaism. He took only the attribute of justice and made a god of law to whom he gave absolute sovereignty, but attributed to him little interest in the weal or woe of the human race.
Since he considered God to be but one person, he became very bitter against Christianity on the ground that he considered it polytheistic because of the three persons in the Godhead. In order to account for Christ, the Mohammedans teach that just before Christ was crucified, the angel Gabriel arranged for some one else, who looked like Christ, to be crucified in his place.
Mohammed in order to secure for himself divine authority asserted that he was the paraclete whom Jesus had promised. He considered Jesus a mere prophet and inferior to himself.
He himself being the last of the prophets of God. The Mohammedan view of creation is very much similar to that found in the Bible. However, the creation of man differed in that it is said that God took a lump of clay and broke it into two pieces, creating mankind from them both. Of the one he said, "These to heaven and I care not," and of those made from the other lump he said, "These to hell and I care not."

Sin to the Mohammedan is far different from sin to the Christian. In the first place, sin has nothing to do with our nature, for man inherited none of the sinful nature of Adam.
Second, sins of ignorance are not counted as wrong doing. Third, only the willful violation of known law is considered sin. Their belief in prede-stination and fatalism makes their future fixed so that salvation through atonement is not necessary. Neither have they any provision from the present power of sin. To match this strange teaching regarding sin, the Mohammedans have planned a heaven full of sensual indulgences where they expect to rest upon gold couches, be attended by celestial beings and be always eating and drinking.

The treatment accorded Mohammedan women is almost as severe as can be found under brutal paganism.
A man may cause his wife to leave him by saying, "Thou art divorced." Her duty to him is implicit obedience and reverential silence in his presence. A Mohammedan woman's hope of heaven is to have a husband and thus to get in to be his attendant.

NEBRASKA SCHOOL TEACHER SPENDS HER VACATION IN TWO THOUSAND MILE TRAMP

Miss Della Anthes.

Miss Della Anthes, a school teacher of Sutton, Neb., is on a long tramp from her home to San Francisco, a distance of nearly two thousand miles. She has already covered more than half the distance and expects to reach the Golden Gate city before the middle of August.
She is accompanied by her brother.

Miss Anthes has had many interesting and some thrilling experiences on her trip. She was caught in a snow storm in the Rockies and had her ears nipped; in travelling across the western desert she has sometimes been compelled to beg food, and she has a pocketful of rattles that she has taken from rattlesnakes killed in the trip. She declares that she is having a fine and dandy time.

NO SORE SPOTS LEFT ON CLARK; AT LEAST NONE IS VISIBLE TO NAKED EYE

Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson at Seat Girl.

If there are any sore spots left on Champ Clark by reason of his failure to gain the presidential nomination at the hands of the Democrats, they are not visible to the casual observer. He is telling everybody that Woodrow Wilson is an ideal candidate and ought to be elected unanimously. Chicago Clark's recent visit to Sea Girl, it is understood, was a sort of a love feast. Champ is running for the re-nomination for congress. He will probably be returned to the lower house, and he seems to think that if he retains the speakership that will be honor enough.

NUMBER SEEK SEAT OF SENATOR CRANE

Announcement of His Retirement at Close of Term Inspires Several To Become Candidates.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Boston, Mass., July 19.—The announcement of United States Senator W. Murray Crane that he will retire at the close of his present term has set all the Bay State politicians by the ears and has started the buzzing of numerous senatorial bees on both sides of the political fence. The leaders have awakened to the fact that there is little time to lose in preparing for the contest, as Senator Crane's term will expire next March and his successor must be selected by the legislature that will be elected next November.

The first name that flew to the minds and the lips of the Republican politicians when the Crane announcement was made, was that of Curtis Guild, Jr., who served two terms as governor of Massachusetts and is now the United States ambassador to Russia. By a seeming coincidence Ambassador Guild arrived in New York from St. Petersburg on the day following the announcement of Senator Crane of his intention to retire. The ambassador's visit home was very brief and his purpose has never been made public. The general opinion is that Mr. Guild would like to be elected senator, but would not enter into any active contest for the honor. His selection, it is believed, would meet with the unqualified approval of Senator Crane.

But since Ambassador Guild returned to his post at St. Petersburg without making known his position in regards to the senatorship, a number of other leading men of the Republican party are preparing to get into the race. It is considered certain that Congressman Samuel W. McCall will shortly announce his candidacy. That Congressman John W. Weeks will do the same thing is regarded as equally certain. Another who may cast his hat into the ring is Congressman Augustus P. Gardner. Mr. Gardner's plans, however, hinge on those of Mr. Guild. If the latter is a candidate, Mr. Gardner will not enter the race.

Another possibility on the Republican side is Eben S. Draper, former governor and millionaire manufacturer. In speaking of the senatorship Mr. Draper says: "I consider the United States senatorship highly. The place has a great attraction for me. I am seriously considering becoming a candidate for it."

But the fight for Senator Crane's seat is not to be confined to the Republican party by any means. Believing that the nomination of Woodrow Wilson will have the effect of bringing out a heavy Democratic vote in Massachusetts Democrats feel that a Massachusetts Democrat feel that a good Democratic candidate for the senate would not be wasting his time by making the fight.

So far Mayor John F. Fitzgerald of Boston is the only Democratic candidate actively in the field for the senatorship. The name of Governor Foss has been mentioned in connection with the toga, but so far he has taken no step to enter the race. Mr. Foss recently gave out that he intended to retire from the governorship at the end of his present term, but his closest political friends expect that he will become a candidate for re-nomination this fall.

A few weeks hence Mayor Fitzgerald will begin his speaking campaign for the senatorship. "Governor Foss has assured me that he will not be a candidate for the United States senate against me," says Mayor Fitzgerald, "all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, I do not know whether the Governor intends to seek re-election. There is no reason in my mind why the next legislature should not be Democratic. The people will certainly see a campaign by our party worthy of the name."

HOLDS THAT JUDGE LONG IS ENTITLED TO SALARY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Prairie du Chien, July 19.—Judge Clementson yesterday, in a decision, held that Judge Long was entitled to his salary. The county had refused to give the judge both salary and fees because he had become a member of the state assembly. The judge held that Mr. Long did not obtain the office of county judge by fraud and that Crawford county received his services as defacto county judge and that, therefore, he was entitled to his salary.

The area of high barometer that was in the Northwest yesterday is now over the Lake Region, and moving eastward. Fair and somewhat cooler weather attend it in the upper Mississippi valley and around Lake Superior.

A barometric depression that has developed on the North Atlantic coast has been attended by rains from New England to the Gulf. There have also been scattered local rains in the Southwest. The rainfall was especially heavy at Boston where 2.52 inches have fallen in the past 24 hours, and at Washington, D. C., where 1.70

There are several barometric depressions, of no great intensity in the West and Southwest, but widespread rains in South Dakota and Nebraska indicate that one of these depressions, a trough extending the length of the Rockies, may develop into a considerable disturbance.

FIRST U. S. PROVISIONAL REGIMENT MAKES LONGEST MARCH RECORDED IN PEACE TIME; BOYS HAVE FUN ALONG THE WAY.

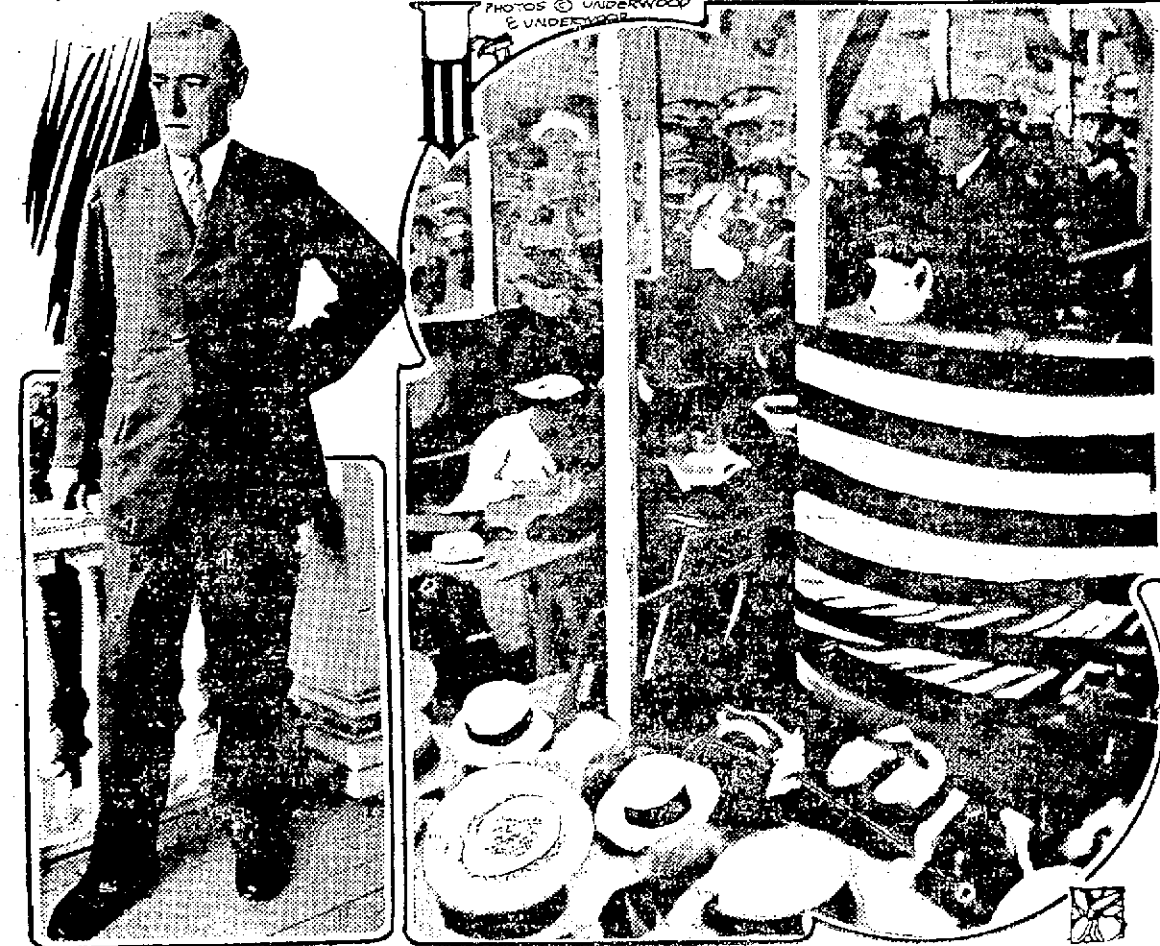

At the left, Col. R. N. Getty; upper picture shows "blanket initiation"; lower picture shows deadly machine gun in operation.

The longest march ever made by a large force of United States regulars in time of peace has just been completed by a regiment of 2,000 men from Fort Snelling, Sheridan, Crook and Brady. The regiment was in command of Col. R. N. Getty. The march started on June 10 from Dubuque, Ia., and ended at Camp Bruce L. McCoy, Sparta, Wis. The boys managed to have a fine time along the way. In one of the accompanying photographs they are seen giving one of their number the "blanket initiation." In the lower photograph the machine gun—the deadliest of small arms—is seen in operation.

GOVERNOR WOODROW WILSON TALKS TO BIG CROWD IN ATLANTIC CITY, BUT AVOIDS DISCUSSION OF POLITICAL ISSUES

Gov. Woodrow Wilson at Atlantic City, N. J.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson addressed a big crowd at Atlantic City, N. J., recently, but he had nothing to say about political issues. It was the governor's first public appearance on the platform since his nomination for the presidency on the Democratic ticket.

OLD CROESUS IN HIS PALMIEST DAYS HAD NOTHING ON MAUDE ADAMS, OR ROSE MELVILLE OR THESE OTHER LUCKY ACTRESSES

At the top: Rose Melville as Sis Hopkins; Maude Adams and Laura Nelson Hall; at bottom: Ethel Barrymore.

In his day Croesus was reckoned as a very good money maker. In fact, he was the leading capitalist of his time. If he were living today, however, and could do no better now than he did then, the chances are that the story of how some of our actresses are making money would cause him to turn green with envy. How would it make him feel to know that when Rose Melville, whose Sis Hopkins has been travelling the circuits for thirteen years, bade farewell to the stage the other day, she carried with her a cool $200,000? What emotions would he experience when told that the first year Maude Adams starred in "The Little Minister" she received a bonus of $50,000 in addition to a big salary? What would he say when told that Ethel Barrymore and Laura Nelson Hall have made small fortunes in a single season?

Tenement House.
Although there are many tenements under one roof, it is correct to speak of the house in the singular, as "tenement house," and it is equally right to mention the several "tenements" in the house. Broadly a tenement house is one divided into a number of separate habitations, so that many families may have their different homes in one house.

Training for Success.
To overcome the odds against him to-day the young man who hopes to be anything but a less-than-average citizen will have no time for self-adulation, and he will have to blunt his appetite for flattery till it ceases to trouble him.

Real Golf Enthusiast.
Our idea of a golf enthusiast is one who plays it right on through the baseball season.—Atlanta Journal.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY THE BOAT CLUB

Robert Bear Chosen Commodore of Janesville Launch Club at Meeting Last Evening.

At a meeting of the Janesville Launch club last evening Robert Bear was elected commodore of the club, Lewis Ehringer, vice-commodore and Judge Charles L. Fifield, secretary and treasurer, for the ensuing year. The principal business of the meeting was the discussion of the project to place buoys in the river to warn boat owners of dangerous spots, especially near Shallow Hollow, where there are stumps in the bed of the river and above the Burr Springs a short distance, where the old dam is located. A committee was appointed to anchor barrels painted white as warning signals to boat owners over the dangerous places. There was also some discussion with regard to the matter of affording some means to prevent boats from being carried by the current under the Fourth avenue bridge and over the dam. One boat, the one owned by William Tuckwood, was swept over the dam early in the season, but Ellis Behlin, who was running it, escaped unhurt, and the boat was not injured. More recently Robert Bear narrowly escaped going over the dam Wednesday evening when he ran his launch too close to the Fourth avenue bridge. His engine, which was running slow, died, and he lost control of the rudder, temporarily, so that the boat came within a few feet of the slabs of the dam. It has been suggested that a cable be extended across the river from pier to pier of the Fourth avenue bridge, but objection to this plan was raised by the city authorities on the ground that some boatman might strike the wire in the darkness and be injured or thrown out of his boat. A more feasible plan is considered to be that of hanging ropes from the sidewalk trusses of the bridge, about six or ten feet apart, so that they could be grasped easily in case anyone was in danger of being swept by the current over the dam. No action was taken on the matter at last night's meeting, but the latter plan will probably be decided upon at a later meeting of the club.

The boat club also desires to increase its membership to include all owners of boats in this city. Incoming members are charged a fee of but two dollars, for which one dollar goes for admission to the club and the other for the use of the club's dock and boat truck. There are no yearly dues to be paid, but when a matter of interest to the club members comes up that requires the expenditure of money, the amount is assessed among the members pro rata. Several new members were taken into the club at last night's meeting.

SCALES CONDEMNED IN SEVERAL STORES

State Inspector of Weights and Measures Spends Busy Day in City Assisting City Sealer Kennedy.

"Conditions in Janesville as regards conformance with the new state law on weights and measures, are not different than in other cities in the state," said State Inspector of weights and measures F. P. Downing who spent a busy day here yesterday assisting City Sealer F. M. Kennedy.

"We have visited a number of stores here," he said, "with the object of informing Mr. Kennedy more exactly as to his duties. It could be impossible to cover the entire ground in two days' time. There is plenty of work for the city sealer to keep him employed for his entire time, and he should be paid accordingly."

Mr. Downing stated that a number of typical stores were visited including several groceries, a hardware establishment, drug store, commission houses, and wagon scales. A number of the scales were condemned under the inspection trip. These were found to be weighing in favor of the customer as well as the merchant. In one hardware store thirty-seven scales in stock were condemned for the reason that the scale was too finely graduated allowing the indicator to cover several notches. The adjusters on some of the scales were also found to be exposed which is contrary to the law which provides that the adjusters shall be covered by a cap of some sort. In several computing scales which were tested the computing records were found to be wrong although the scales weighed correctly. In one store a set of new liquid measures recently bought were found to be several cubic inches short. These were condemned as were all scales and measures found incorrect unless they could be remedied.

Mr. Downing completed his inspection tour here yesterday afternoon after testing several wagon scales.

Sagacious Loafing

THE time of the year has come for sagacious loafing, as some one cleverly puts it. Certainly those of us who have twinges of conscience about taking a vacation feel better, when we apply to it some such high-toned term.

But the time has gone by for many of us to have twinges of conscience on the subject of taking a vacation. Our conscience is more likely to prick us if we don't take it. For we are coming to a more intelligent understanding of the needs of the body, and we are coming to look upon its sensible care as a moral responsibility. To work it beyond its strength, to fail to give it needed rest and change is as reprehensible as to injure it with drugs or stimulants.

And in the rushing life we live to-day, a vacation or a holiday is as essential as food. And the great holiday season for most of us is here. How are we going to spend our share of it? A vacation should not be a serious matter. But it should be considered seriously. When once entered upon it should be enjoyed light-heartedly. But the importance of it should be felt. For the most of us, it is the one brief period in all the year that we have for rest and change, the one little time when work lets up and we get away from the grind that relentlessly wears on nerves and muscles. And we should fully realize what this wear in the long run means to us, and how important is the respite from it.

So we should not throw some things into a bag and rush off on our vacation without giving any thought to it, thinking that anything, so we are not working, is good. In the matter of vacation, all things may be good, but some are better than others. And so we should loaf sagaciously.

What to do depends upon taste and pocketbook. A well-known popular woman was heard to remark that she would just love to start out with about two dollars in her pocketbook and tramp from town to town, earning enough in each place to pay her way to the next. Another woman who heard her, shuddered at the very thought, and said she could see little pleasure in a vacation of that kind. But to the first woman whose life it all out and dried, the very uncertainty of such an experience was alluring.

So every one must choose her own vacation road. But the chief thing is not to choose hastily or thoughtlessly. The purpose of a vacation should be kept in mind—to come back to work rested, improved physically, and with a keen appetite for the tasks that wait.

And this result can only be acquired by loafing sagaciously.

A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS

Edna K. Woolley

"I wonder if other people have as much bad luck as I do about getting back fruit jars and glasses?" sighed an old-fashioned housekeeper.

"Now, just for an instance: A while ago I sent several glasses of jelly and about a dozen jars of fruit to a friend of mine who was convalescing. She was delighted to get it and couldn't thank me enough.

"Well, she went away for a vacation, and the next day a package from her came to my house. I had it taken back to the kitchen, thinking it contained my jelly glasses and fruit jars, and told the maid to open the package and put the contents away.

A few moments later the maid called me.

"These don't look like your jelly jars, ma'am," she said. Then she showed me the worst lot of old jars and glasses, all dirty, and most of them without tops! I had sent out my best new jars, with the wide glass tops. Not one of them was returned. Instead, there were those old-fashioned ones with the screwed-on tops—I stopped using that kind long ago.

"I was thoroughly discouraged and I wanted to sit down and cry. It wasn't just getting back those old dirty jars instead of my own new ones. It was the discourtesy of sending such things to me after I had meant to be kind. "I suppose, though," she sighed again, "I ought to be thankful to get back any jars at all. Usually, when one gives away preserves, she might just as well say goodbye to the glass, for hardly anybody ever thinks of returning it. It's just like lending books. People don't seem to think that such things cost money."

Here's a story told me by an enthusiastic suffragist the other day. "There's a wealthy woman in this town," said the suffragist (who is young, and distractingly pretty), "who has lately decided that she doesn't want to vote, so she has joined the ranks of the anti-suffragists. She told me what had decided her, in this way:

"Really, you know, at first I thought I wanted to vote. I heard about taxation without representation and all that, my dear, and I really thought I ought to have something to say about taxing my property. I have so much of it, you know. So I joined the suffragists—many of them are really of fine family, and it's growing quite fashionable to be a suffragist. But, dear me! It required so much study and thought to understand those suffragists. Really, it tired me terribly. I found that my mind was as well as my property was taxed. So I decided that I preferred not to vote after all, and I shall do everything in my power to keep that burden from my sister."

Yes, that's just the way the young and pretty suffragist told it. And it's really too good to keep, isn't it?

Heart and Home Problems

by MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—How should I treat a young man with bad character? (2)—How should I treat an old man who is always talking to me about my beaux? I am only 16 and not thinking about boys. (3)—What kind of party would be nice to give? (4)—If you were me, would you go to the moving picture show with your sister and her beau when you know you are not wanted? (5)—I was told if you wanted to break a couple up to pour vinegar in the young man's footprints. Is it so? (6)—How should I treat a girl whose character is not good? I have to go to school every day with her. (7)—What is a nice present for a poor girl to give a poor boy? (8)—How should two lonely girls spend a Sunday? (9)—What would be nice to take to a neighborhood picnic to eat? (10)—My mother does not want me to dance and I want to learn. Would I do wrong to learn? (11)—What do you think of a young man who does not stick to his promises? (12)—When a person sticks her tongue out at you is that an insult? (13)—Is winking an insult? KATE S.

(1)—Ignore him. (2)—Take it as a joke. I am glad you are sensible about the boys. (3)—Give a lawn party. Serve refreshments outdoors. Play croquet or any outdoor games. (4)—I wouldn't be rude enough to force myself into their company. (5)—Nothing to it. (6)—You do not need to associate with her. (7)—Tie, pocket knife, book wachob, fountain pen. (8)—You might go to church in the morning, or at least go to Sunday school. Read, take a walk, play quiet games, visit your friends or have them visit you. (9)—Sandwiches, pickles, fruit, jelly tarts. (10)—People are learning not to object to dancing as they used to. There is no harm in it in proper company. But do not learn without your mother's knowledge, and get her consent if possible. (11)—It is unreliable. (12)—It is very bad manners that's all. (13)—This is bad manners, too.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Am 14 years old and in love with a boy of 16. I believe he loved me, but my mother does not like him and does not want me to associate with him. (1)—What must I do to get him to like me? (2)—Am I too young to receive attentions from him or correspond with him? UNSATISFIED GIRL.

Your mother only wants to guard you, dear little girl. When you are old enough to have a daughter you will do just as your mother is doing now.

I—Treat him as a boy friend, just as you treat your other boy friends. (2)—Yes. If you write him simply as a friend, it will do you no harm, so long as your mother knows about it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am engaged to a young man and am very jealous of him. I do not think he loves me any more. He took me to a picnic and kept leaving me alone, to go with the boys. He did not talk to me and when he went home I had to walk a block alone and it was nearly dark. That same evening he said he would come to see me on a certain evening and he did not come. I have not seen him for 11 days.

He has taken these spells twice before and once stayed away nine weeks. Sometimes he acts as though he is crazy about me. I have been engaged to him over a year and he has only called on me twice a week. I am unhappy and consider myself tied down and would like to be free again but I hate to make him mad.

HEART BROKEN. If you wish to be free, tell him so. Perhaps he is tired of your jealousy. A man doesn't like to be suspected, you know. Twice a week is often enough for him to call. He may have other demands upon his time.

He should not have left you to go alone to your home, but at the picnic you should not have expected his company all the time. If you want to hold a man you must make him think he is free to do as he likes. Are you sure you are not demanding too much of him?

THE KITCHEN CABINET

CHARLES KINGSLEY says: "Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you a hundred virtues which the idle never know."

THE BALANCED RATION.

Preparing a balanced ration for one's family means more than one would think. The season, the climate, age, occupation and condition of health must all be considered in determining the food for an individual.

In different seasons different foods are best; this is also true of climatic conditions. The age, too, has much to do in deciding what is best for the diet. The occupation of a person, namely an indoor or outdoor worker, the kind and amount of food varies for each.

It is only within recent years that women have begun to study these needs of the family, and now there are comparatively few who give it more than a passing thought. Many women feel that instinct tells them the kind of food to prepare. It may be true with some, but instinct is not a reliable guide, as many sufferers from all sorts of stomach troubles and other diseases painfully testify.

There are many people today suffering in middle life because of improper feeding in their youth.

The proteins are represented in our diet by meats, eggs, milk and cheese; the carbohydrates by sugars and starches and the fats by butter, cream and nuts. When we speak of a balanced ration we mean all these food principles used in the diet in proportion to the needs of the body. A growing child needs bone and muscle-building food, such as eggs, milk, grains as cereal food and as bread. The outdoor worker is able to consume and assimilate more and heartier food than the office man or school teacher.

The problem of foods, as to quantity and food value, must be worked out by every woman who has the responsibility of feeding a household.

We are glad to learn that in these days of high prices in meats there are other foods of equal value as to sustaining power in nuts, peas and combinations of vegetables, with a very little meat for flavor.

DIET INSTEAD OF DRUGS.

More than fifty years ago, an English physician, Dr. Bennett, wrote: "Of all the means of cure at our disposal, attention to the quantity and quality of the ingesta is by far the most influential." The importance of diet in health and disease did not entirely escape the attention of the older physicians. Even Hippocrates, the father of medicine, laid great stress on diet, his prescription for consumption, particularly, being now especially noteworthy, on account of its close approximation to the modern treatment of that disease. "Go to the hills and drink goats' milk," Dr. Wiley has been reported in the newspapers as saying that "the physician of the future will use diet instead of drugs." Dr. Osler has, in his latest work on medicine, classed diabetes, rheumatism and several other diseases in the class of nutritional diseases, requiring diet as their principal means of treatment. Diet is indicated in the treatment of nutritional diseases because they are caused directly by errors in diet, and it must follow that they can be prevented by proper diet.

ABUSING PRIVILEGES.

THERE is a certain class of people in this world who are regularly given to abusing privileges. Sometimes their conduct results in the privileges being withdrawn—and withdrawn, unfortunately, not only from them, but also from those who used their privileges rightly; sometimes it merely causes infinite trouble and difficulty to someone.

One of the department stores in my home city has always been remarkable for the courtesy which it has shown in the matter of exchanges. Anything within reason—and sometimes more than that—this firm would do. Recently, I heard someone say, "So-and-So & Co. are not so good about exchanging things as they used to be." If that statement is true, there is good reason for the change. For, again and again, I have known of the courtesy of that firm being abused. I know one woman who bought a green silk lamp shade, used it six months, and then actually exchanged it. If the privileges of exchange are curtailed by So-and-So & Co., I think the woman who took back that green lamp shade will be partly to blame.

As I waited for my white gloves at the glove cleaning counter the other day, I heard one clerk say wearily to another, "I've just had two more lost checks reported. Seems as if there wasn't anything, but lost checks lately. If those slips meant as much trouble to them as it does to us, there wouldn't be so much carelessness, I can tell you." There was another case of abused privileges. This time it did not result in the privilege being taken away, because that would be practically impossible; it simply meant infinite trouble for someone.

Again, many stores are very liberal in their delivery privileges. At some shops in the larger cities, even the least expensive purchase may be sent free of charge. But there is such a thing as using this privilege reasonably and stopping there. To be sure, you have a RIGHT to send even the little parcel which you could easily slip into your hand bag, but the idea of the system is merely to relieve the customer of cumbersome packages, and when you oblige the expressman to make a special trip to your house to bring a toothbrush or three pairs of stockings, you are grossly abusing your privilege.

There is reason in all things. Just because the shop grants you these privileges as a matter of business, does not justify you in abusing them. Decent people have some sense of honor and decency in business dealings as well as personal relations. Besides, there is a human element in everything. You have an idea that it is only the firm which suffers when you abuse one of its privileges. Nine times out of ten some individual is also affected. Witness the incident of the white gloves.

HOUSEHOLD TALKS

Harrietta D. Gravel

The turnpike road to men's hearts, I find, lies through their palates, or I mis- take making!

Well, as I told you, Lady Baltimore made me to charm her husband and he praised me to all his friends, calling me "Lady Baltimore's cake." One afternoon a rider came from the state house saying the Governor was bringing friends to tea to taste his young wife's wonderful sweet. 'Twas just like a man, you'll admit, for he had eaten the last morsel she had baked for dinner.

Cream two-thirds of a cup of butter with two cups of soft white sugar, add the beaten yolks of six eggs, after a thorough beating add a half cup of rich sour milk containing a teaspoon of soda. As you mix in the milk add the sifted flour, a few tablespoons at a time; three cups of flour that has been sifted twice should be sufficient, but more may be needed. Lastly, cut in the stiffly-beaten whites of the eggs and flavor with rose, almond or orange extract. Bake in layers about two inches deep in a moderate oven.

For the filling grind or chop a cup of seeded raisins, a half a cup of citron, one cup of fresh coconut and a half a pound of almond and a tablespoon of candied ginger cut in tiny bits. Make a plain white frosting and into a portion of it mix the fruit and nuts, spread this between the layers. When the cake is built trim the sides down evenly and cover with the frosting, decorate the top with a design of nuts and fruits, using angelica, whole halves of nuts and candied cherries.

DINNER STORIES

Representative Sulzer, in an interview in Washington, compared Russia's silence on the passport question to an unusually silent, uncommunicative man. "This man," he said, "hated to talk as Russia hates all passport talk. He went into a barber shop the other day to be shaved, and, before seating himself in the chair, he handed the barber a dime. 'Oh, thank you, sir,' said the barber. 'I don't often get my tip before I begin. Thank you, sir, very much.' 'That isn't a tip,' said the silent man sternly. 'It's 'his' money.'"

It was a small town in central Indiana. The village storekeeper was ticket agent, baggage master and telegrapher of the little flag station, past which two fast trains thundered each day. At last, growing tired of the monotony of life, he went out and pulled up the flag. The train slid in and came to a stop in front of the tiny station.

"Where's your passenger?" demanded the bustling conductor. "Waah!" drawled the agent, "I dunno as that is any one's business to get on, but I kinder thought mebbe some one might want to get off."

Maclyn Arbuckle, has a country place and likes to regale his friends at the Lamb's club with wonderful stories of farm life, and whenever he begins to talk on this subject is always assured of an interested coterie of listeners. Recently he began a discourse on his favorite subject. "But," he concluded, "during the last summer a large number of my hens stopped laying." Marc Klav "fell." "What was the cause?" he anxiously inquired. Mr. Arbuckle smiled and answered nonchalantly: "Automobiles."

Edgar M. Church, the famous football veterans of Philadelphia, was talking about football's charms. "When I was playing in '91's class games," said he, "there was a '91' chap who lost a dear relative. The funeral took place the day we played '92, and, at the game's end, as I was crossing over to the college, the funeral procession glided slowly past. 'All of a sudden a head was thrust out of one of the mourning coaches and a voice said:

"Have we licked 'em, Churchy?"

"Yes," said I.

"Hurrah!" shouted my classmate, and drew in his head again, and drove on sorrowing."

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Some journey or change is indicated which will bring you good fortune and you will make acquaintance of those who will influence your life. If you would win these people for friends refrain from talking too much of yourself.

Those born today will be rather thoughtless of the impression they make, but will have the good sense to restrain themselves and will later be successful and loved by many on account of their good qualities.

Disliked Cinematograph.

While a performing tigress was being put through her tricks recently by her tamer Hervemann in front of a cinematograph at Nice, France, she displayed the utmost resentment at seeing the apparatus leveled in her direction. Failing to get at the instrument or its operator, she turned on the trainer and mauled him severely.

The Skin and Not the Blood.

Until recently it has been a generally accepted theory that eczema was a disease of the blood. Scientific investigations have taught us that eczema is positively a skin disease and curable through the skin alone. Meritol Eczema Remedy is applied directly to the diseased skin, the effect is marvelous and its results permanent. Do not delay trying Meritol Eczema Remedy. Reliable Drug Co., Sole Agents.

Heat Often Tends To Make Women Pale and Weak

They Neglect Their Bowels and the Poisons Vitiates the Blood.

Hot weather has a very weakening effect on women. They become too languid to exercise and have appetite for light, tasty foods, like salads and other cold concoctions, which do not digest readily and tend to increase their natural tendency to constipation.

At this season women, especially, need all their strength to resist the enervating effect of the heat. Good digestion and regularity of the bowels are essential. Some fruits have laxative properties, but they are uncertain in their effect, and are not generally advised. A mild bowel stimulant and digestant, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is preferable because it is certain in its effect, natural in its action, and wholly safe. Take a dose of Syrup Pepsin at night and by morning the sick headache and indigestion will be gone.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere, and costs fifty cents a bottle; a larger size, intended for family use, costs one dollar. If you have never used Syrup Pepsin and would like a free trial bottle, postpaid, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, July 19, 1872.—A Series of Fires. The Fire Department Called Out Three Times in Ten Hours. Last night seemed especially set apart for the ravages of the fire fiend in our city, three distinct conflagrations occurring, involving a loss of twenty thousand dollars. At half past five an alarm of fire was sounded from the east side engine house, caused by the discovery of fire in the malt kiln of Roethinger's brewery at the south end of Main street. The department responded promptly to the summons but before the steamers could reach the scene the flames were extinguished by the exertions of Mr. Doty and a few others who happened to be on the spot when the fire broke out. The members of the fire department with the machines and Mr. Roethinger sat down to congratulate himself on the narrow escape of his property from destruction. Only some four hundred dollars worth of damage had been done. While conversing with some friends who went down to ascertain the amount of injury done to the brewery, smoke and flames were again discovered issuing from the malt kiln, which was located on the west side of the building. Mr. Roethinger immediately started the steam pump for the purpose of throwing water on the fire, but the fly wheel of the engine had hardly made a dozen revolutions when the pump belt flew off. It was replaced several times, but with no better success. In the meantime, (at about eight o'clock

SPRAY FOR CENTERPIECE OR SCARF.

This will make a pretty decoration for a centerpiece or scarf. The daisies and leaves are worked solid and the stems in the outline stitch. Mercerized cotton No. 20 should be used.

ARE YOU TOO HOT? THEN PERHAPS YOU CAN LEARN SOMETHING FROM THESE TOTS WHO KEEP COOL THROUGH THE HOTTEST DAYS

Does this scorching July weather make you wish that you were an Eskimo? Does it take a lot of joy out of living, and cause you to say mean and miserable things about the weather man? Then, cheer up. All you have to do to get back to enjoying life is to follow the example of the children shown in the accompanying pictures. Not many signs of grief on the faces of the little girls, are there? And the kiddies seen in the lower picture are as cool as you please, and couldn't be happier. It is very comforting to know that there is a way to keep cool and that these little tots have found it.

ORCHESTRA GIVES SPLENDID CONCERT

Minneapolis Musicians Under Direction of Emil Oberhoffer Delighted Audience at Myers Theatre.

With a long program of difficult selections the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra under the direction of Emil Oberhoffer, delighted a large audience at the Myers theatre last evening. Each number was liberally applauded and the artistic beauty of the rendition of the orchestra and soloists was fully appreciated. Music-lovers from Beloit, Rockford, Evansville, Edgerston, Milton and other neighboring cities were present and joined with local musicians in their praise of the entire concert.

Mr. Oberhoffer ranks high as an orchestra leader throughout the country and his wonderful ability in developing all the possibilities of the pieces was displayed in remarkable fashion. He is a temperamental leader, feeling every note and instinctively recognizing the importance of bringing out all parts with their true artistic relation. He was a favorite with the audience and his gracious manner combined with unusual talents as director make him at once popular.

Richard Czerwosky, violin soloist, proved to be an artist far above the average and his playing had a most delightful and expressive touch. He graciously responded to two encores and the audience would gladly have listened to further selections from him.

Genevieve Wheat was another of the delights of the evening. With a beautiful contralto voice, rich and full and under perfect control, and with a pleasing stage presence, she captivated her listeners with her beautiful singing. Her first selection, "O Don Patale," aria from Don Carlos, Verdi, gave an opportunity to show her abilities as a dramatic singer and her interpretation was excellent. She responded to two encores, singing "The Rosary," and "Du Bist Wie Eine Blume," with sweetness and clear enunciation.

Mr. Kirk Karl Smith, cellist, pleased the audience with his selection.

tions in the first part of the program and proved himself a musician of extraordinary ability. He responded to an encore.

Della Thal, pianist, appeared in the second part of the program. Her selection, "Concerto in D Minor for Piano and Orchestra," by MacDowell, proved to be one of the treats of the evening. Miss Thal had a wonderfully expressive touch and one of the best pianists that has played before a Janesville audience in some time.

The entire program last evening was of a more serious nature and some of the selections were rather technical to make them popular. All the members of the orchestra were artists, however, and the exactness and beauty of their playing in response to their leader indicated their standing among musical organizations of the country.

GRAND DUCHESS AUGUSTA CELEBRATES NINETIETH YEAR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Berlin, July 19.—The little city of Neu-Strelitz, capital of the grand duchy of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, was the scene today of a notable gathering of royalty assembled for the celebration of the ninetieth birthday anniversary of the Dowager Grand Duchess Augusta, mother of the reigning grand duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz. The English royal family as well as the imperial family of Germany was represented at the celebration, for the venerable Grand Duchess was before her marriage the English Princess Augusta, daughter of the English royal family and was always spoken of by the late King Edward as "our doyenette." In spite of her 90 years the Grand Duchess is active of mind and body. She is extremely fond of social gatherings and an indefatigable patroness of the theater.

Should Have Heeded Ill Omen.

The wisest of us have our pet superstitions, one or more. The great house of Rothschild has unwritten canons on the subject. The head of the firm, if he met a pig on his way to the office, would not conclude any financial transaction on that day. On one occasion he determined to rise above his weakness, and, after meeting his omen, arranged a large loan, by which the firm lost over a million sterling.

New York's Seal.

The figures on the seal of the city of New York refer to the trades in which the early settlers engaged. The beavers were used as early as 1645, for the trade in beaver skins was an important industry from the colony's beginning. In 1686 the flour trade had become important also, so the windmills and barrels were added to typify that occupation.

Home Place for Growth.

Most married people aim to have a showy house, but home is not merely four square walls; it is a place for growth, for growing together, "like a double cherry seeming parted." It is a place for children to grow into physical vigor and moral health.

No Change.

"You know woman was once the head of the family," she said. "No need to speak of that in the past tense," replied her husband weekly.
